BEN HANLEY VISTS

We had yet another surprise visit this week from an artist who was instrumental in shaping the Holy Trinity Cathedral we know today. Ben and Suzanne Hanley of Glassworks were responsible for transforming the designs of Shane Cotton, Robert Ellis and Nigel Brown into the living stained-glass windows displayed in the Cathedral Nave today. It was great to catch up with Ben and chat a little about the extraordinary work he and Suzanne performed.

GREETINGS! NGĀ MIHI!

Last Sunday, the Cathedral Council met and the strategic conversation this month was focused on connecting.

We evaluated how we as a Cathedral connect with the Diocese, with ecumenical and interfaith communities, and with our wider circles across the spectrum of all we do. We realised what a broad reach we have in all of these areas and such a strong network with many 'communities,' faith-based, secular and civic alike.

Opportunities to connect with the wider Auckland Diocese include Synod, Ministry Conference, confirmations, Ordination Eucharist, and Renewal of Vows for those in Ministry on Maundy Thursday. Our Community engagement includes the Organ Donor Service, SANDZ, Commonwealth Society, Hato Hone - St John's and our All Souls Service. Alongside these are all our ecumenical and interfaith engagements. We also have the many public events for which clients hire the building and school carol services and prizegivings.

Another area of connecting is through our faithful and passionate team of welcomers who are often the face of the Cathedral to visitors who come to the Cathedral. I am grateful to Geoff Styles who oversees this amazing team and to the welcomers who do such a fantastic job helping us keep the Cathedral open to visitors from all over the world.

Our mission statement of Living God's Love, Welcoming, Worshipping, Nourishing and Empowering is again strongly reflected and actioned in this strategic goal.

With every blessing,

ANNE MILLS
DEAN

We are introducing UK composer, David Thorne's St Thomas Mass as an alternative to David Child's Mass which has been in use for many years at Holy Trinity Cathedral. The beauty of this new setting is that it very versatile. We will sing it twice during this current term, so that you can all get to know it. Please do join in with the choir as you are able. We hope you will find The Mass of St Thomas aids your worship at the Eucharist service.

Join us over two Sundays when we will share soup and rolls after the 10am Eucharist followed by a special viewing of this new film in two parts. RSVP below to register your attendance.

Conversation about the Treaty is happening all around us. There is an important opportunity right now to dive into our shared story so that we know our place to stand and how we can belong, wherever our ancestors came from.

'Belonging in this land: Treaty basics from a Christian perspective' is an opportunity for our faith community to explore the story of the Treaty of Waitangi over two 90-minute video sessions. Whether you know a lot, or a little, let's be curious together.

Brought to us by Common Grace Aotearoa in partnership with Karuwā Trust and Te Manu Hononga - the Sir Paul Reeves Centre, we will hear from expert presenters, including Dean of Taranaki Cathedral Jay Ruka and former Anglican Archbishop David Moxon, to help you refresh or expand your knowledge.

9am Sunday 4 August
Cathedral Undercroft

Singer, songwriter and artist Derek Lind with a band of merry musicians will join Rhythms of Grace in the Undercroft this Sunday. Derek has Dupuytren's contracture (and arthritis) which means he has almost no movement in three fingers of his left hand. They are permanently bent to his palm. His ability to paint and play guitar are affected significantly. Pray for his healing and for a new vein of creativity to be opened in him. Expect Kevin Adair - Drums. Andrew Horst - Bass. Vernon Rive - Keyboards. Guy Wishart - Acoustic guitar. Derek - Electric guitar. Should be fun!

THE HOLY TRINITY CATHEDRAL STEWARDSHIP CAMPAIGN 2024

Kia ora, I'm Paul Bushnell, the Dean's Warden at Holy Trinity Cathedral.

We have different gifts, according to the grace given to each of us. If your gift is giving, then give generously.

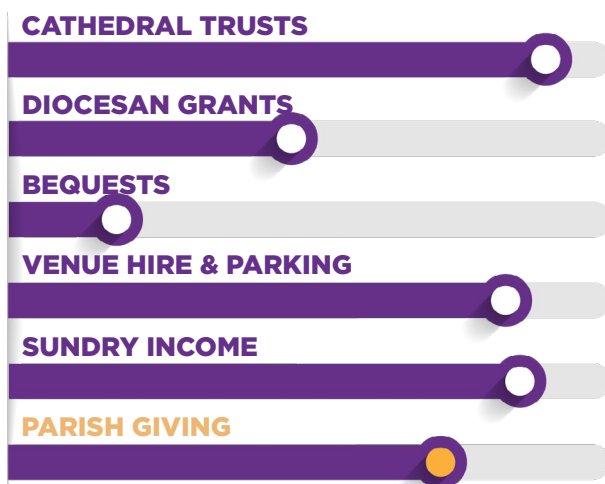

- Romans 12:8

These words come from another Paul – the saint, in his letter to the Romans. They provide the framing for the launch of our 24 for 24 stewardship campaign.

Parishioners contribute as volunteers across an extraordinary range of activities in the Cathedral, and that is something to celebrate. However, there's another aspect of our giving which is critical to the running of this place, and that is money.

Why is this stewardship campaign needed?

It costs $1.2m every year to run this unique precinct – providing worship, liturgy, civic commemoration, music, performance, and public and private events.

So where does the money come from?

We gratefully receive 80% of it from a range of sources. There are trusts – such as the Cathedral Trust for Ministry, Music and Mission. There is an annual operational grant from the Diocese, there are bequests, venue hire fees for events both large and small, car parking, and sundry income. The remaining 20% of our annual income comes from giving which we as parishioners do. It currently totals $220,000 per year. This sounds like a lot, but this figure hasn't changed in five years—in fact since the last stewardship campaign in 2019. This is probably because most giving now is by AP—automatic payments that each of us has set up to transfer a sum to the Cathedral's account on a regular basis. This was a big help during the Covid years, however, there is a downside—that it's so easy to set and forget this arrangement.

The problem?

In the five years since 2019, inflation has eaten away 24% of the value of an unchanged donation. So that is why, in 2024, we're setting the goal of increasing regular giving to update this amount. If we can raise current giving by 24%, or nearly a quarter extra, we'll raise the annual giving total to over $270,000. This will help in keeping the budget stable, and allowing the Cathedral to operate sustainably. It's the reason for the campaign name 24 for 24.

How can I help?

So, the challenge in front of us all (myself included) is:

- To begin making one-off gifts or regular contributions if you haven't done so yet.
- To increase the amount, if you currently give regularly, by up to 24%.

Remember too, that for every dollar you donate, you get one third back as a tax refund.

Let me also acknowledge that for some in our parish, a 24 for 24 target isn't possible. No problem! Give whatever you can. It will be gratefully received and put to good use.

The last word I will give to St Paul:
'If your gift is giving, then give generously.'

Paul Bushnell
Dean's Warden

A PRAYER FOR THE OLYMPIC GAMES

God, thank you for each of the athletes who has traveled to the Olympics from around the world.

The diverse nations, cultures, types of sports, and personalities they represent show us a variety of ways to participate in the Olympic Games. As the athletes gather, please meet them where they are with your loving presence. May your love prevail as they relate to each other. Help them be kind to each other, listen to each other's stories, and learn from each other's experiences. Through the power of your love, may you connect them in friendships and unify them as they work toward their goals together. When people watch the Olympics, may they be inspired by the spirit of your love at work in your global human family, and may that promote more peace in our world."
